CHECK OUT/DEPARTURE

Date: Friday, June 14, 2024
Time: 8:30 p.m. - 11:00 p.m.
Location: Few Residence Hall
4 Eagle Row
Atlanta, GA 30322

Commuter students' last day is Friday, June 14, 2024. All activities will be finished by 9:00 p.m. No activities are planned for Saturday, June 15th; therefore commuter students will not come to campus that day. There is a final dinner and fun activities the final night that commuters are welcome to attend if they so choose, but instruction will conclude at 6:00 p.m. on Friday. You will need to come into the dorm at the end of the day to sign your student out unless you sign a form (available at registration) saying your student is permitted to sign themselves out and meet you at the car.

CAN STUDENTS DRIVE THEMSELVES TO CAMPUS?

We would prefer that parents or legal guardians drive students to and from campus. If there is a case where the student must drive themselves to campus, please contact the ENDI phone at (678) 205-6281 or at emorydebateinstitute@gmail.com. We have additional paperwork, rules, and regulations for a participant driver.

Few Residence Hall

DAILY DROP-OFF AND PICK-UP

Commuters must be dropped off and picked up from the Few Residence Hall:

Few Residence Hall
4 Eagle Row
Atlanta, GA 30322

You will need to come into the dorm at the end of the day to sign your student out unless you sign and email us this form saying your student is permitted to sign themselves out and meet you at the car.

Because the commuter tuition includes breakfast, we recommend that students be dropped off between 7:30-9:00 a.m. Morning lectures and classes begin at 9:00 a.m. Commuter students should be picked up between 9:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. at Few Residence Hall.

REQUIRED FORM

If you have not already, please complete the required form here

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Tuition

Full payment of tuition is due by June 1, 2024. The $200 deposit is deducted from the total tuition due. Any changes made after May 15th (changing program, for instance) will incur a $200 change fee. Click here for a link to the registration and payment website.

Extra Spending Money

All expenses (3 meals a day at the Emory Dining Hall, t-shirt, and programming) are covered by the tuition fees, but many students bring extra spending money. The amount you want to send with your child to campus depends on your judgment. There is a Barnes & Noble bookstore on campus with Emory goods for sale. Students are also allowed to walk to the Emory Village and eat at the restaurants there with their spending money. Students are allowed to order food delivery during the free time at the residence halls from 9:00-10:00 p.m.

MEDICAL ISSUES

Medication

Please let us know about any medications that your camper is taking. Please also let us know if your child requires the ENDI residence staff to administer or store any medications. Students are allowed to bring and administer medications (over the counter and prescription) to themselves but under NO circumstances are they allowed to distribute or share any medications, even over-the-counter medications, with another participant.

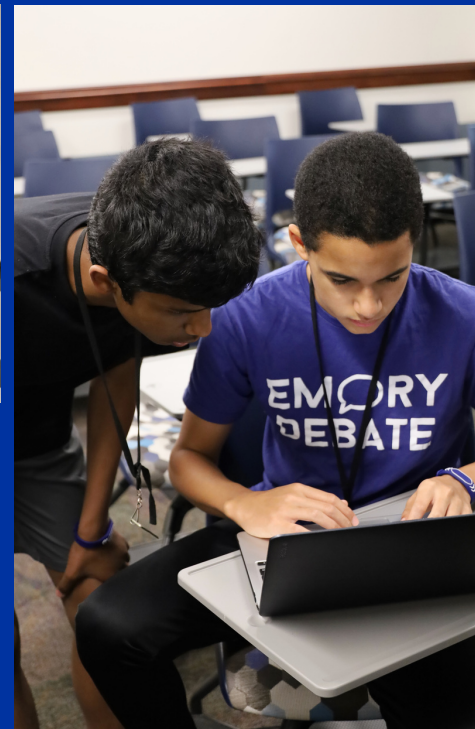

Medical Attention

If your child gets sick or injured at the ENDI, a staff member will call you. The only thing that we will administer without a call to you is a band-aid for a minor scratch. For anything else we will call you. If your child needs professional medical attention, we will take them to the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta's Emergency Room on Emory's campus. Please be aware that all medical bills must be paid by the child's family. The ENDI tuition does not cover medical expenses. We will call before taking your child to the emergency room unless there is a medical emergency that requires immediate attention.

TAKING A PARTICIPANT OFF-CAMPUS DURING THE ENDI

Applies to all students- including commuters

Students are allowed to be checked out at any time during the institute. If you will be checking a student out at any point during the institute, please email emorydebateinstitute@gmail.com at least 24 hours in advance so we can plan accordingly. To check a student out, the participant and the adult will meet in the Few Hall lobby where the residence staff member on duty will check the participant out. When the student comes back to campus, the participant and adult will return to the Few Hall lobby to be checked in by the residence staff on duty. If a participant is not being checked out by a legal guardian, we require written permission from the legal guardian for another adult to check a participant out. Be prepared to show a photo ID to the residence staff to check a participant out of the ENDI. We reserve the right to deny permission for a participant to be checked out for the safety of that participant.

THE ENDI EXPERIENCE

During the day, students will work in small groups with a core faculty of qualified and experienced instructors who are current high school and college teachers and coaches who have also been successful debaters. Small lab groups are normally composed of two senior faculty supplemented by active nationally-competitive college debaters.

WHAT SHOULD I WEAR AND BRING TO THE ENDI?

What to Wear

- Clothes: Casual dress is acceptable for the entirety of the ENDI. Many students choose to bring a nicer outfit or two for the tournament at the end of the institute, but that is not a requirement. We recommend that you bring a light jacket, sweater, or sweatshirt. The buildings are well air conditioned in the summer at Emory.
- Athletic Gear: You will have access to the Woodruff P.E. Center on campus (but not the pool) during free time at the ENDI. Students have brought athletic gear (tennis rackets, basketballs, etc.) to the institute in the past. We recommend that all students bring a pair of sneakers for a few planned physical activities with the residence staff during free time.
- Rain Gear: Atlanta can get a lot of rain in the summer months, so don't forget your umbrella!

Supplies for Lectures and Lab Groups

- Note-taking Supplies: You will attend lectures and lab groups where you will want to take notes. Bring whatever supplies you use to take notes for a class.
- Refillable water bottle
- Debate Supplies: You will be participating in debate rounds, so bring whatever supplies you use during a debate (flow paper, pens, timer, etc.). If you are new to debate, we recommend you bring paper (copy paper or legal pads are fine), and different colored pens for note-taking during a debate.
- Laptop Computer: It is important that students bring a laptop to the ENDI that has: 1) the full version (not online version) of Microsoft Word, (2) the ability to install a program; students will need to download and install Verbatim, and (3) a student email address that can send and receive messages to email addresses outside of the student's school. Computers, and all expensive items, are brought at your own risk. In order to get online on Emory's campus, your computer must have up-to-date virus protection. It is recommended that you bring a power strip, as well.

What NOT to Bring

- Nerf guns, pool noodles, candles, etc.
- In short: If you can't bring it to school, you shouldn't bring it to camp!

SELECTIVES AND FREE TIME

From 7:30-9:00 p.m. most nights, students can participate in activities supervised by the residence hall or teaching staff or return home at 6:00 p.m. or after dinner. Some students need a brain break at that hour, but some want to keep working on debate. Commuters who are interested in attending will choose one of the evening selectives ranging from extra debate instruction to movie nights. There is also an opportunity each afternoon for them to have a break on the quad. The lunch and dinner breaks are not structured; students will get their meals in the dining hall on their own and spend their time however they wish.
